

Alamo Country Club Committee/Club/Group Charter

Committee/Club/Group: RV and Travel Club

Purpose: The RV and Travel Club exists to promote opportunities for social, recreational and informational activities that provide enjoyment and pleasure to its members.

Scope: This Club shall function within Alamo Country Club with a mutual interest in Texas and/or other locations. The Club organizes activities and travel opportunities for its members.

Responsibilities: It shall be the Club's responsibility to self-govern deriving its existence and authority from the membership in meetings.

Members: To be eligible for and maintain membership, a person must be current in the annual dues.

Meetings: Meetings shall include rallies, dinner meetings or any other gathering suitable to the function of the club.

Business meetings will be held monthly November-April to coincide with the Winter Season in the community.

Project Funding: The Club may have fundraisers to promote projects the Club deems worthy and to support events for the membership. The Club also participates in projects and funding that benefit the entire ACC community upon membership approval.